If Tube or IV Feedings Are Part of Your Life, The Oley Foundation Is Here to Help You!

Since 1983, the Oley Foundation has provided FREE information and support to consumers dependent on home parenteral and enteral nutrition (homePEN). We encourage you to learn more about the Oley Foundation by contacting them today.

Who Should Be Interested

All consumers (patients) who receive home nutrition support and their caregivers. This includes:

- enteral nutrition (HEN) where formula is delivered by tube into the stomach or intestinal tract; AND
- parenteral nutrition (HPN) where solutions are infused directly into the bloodstream (intravenously)

Consumers have lived fully productive lives on these therapies for more than 30 years.

Diagnoses that can lead to dependence upon homePEN are highly varied and include:

- Cancer forms that limit nutrient absorption or impair the ability to eat
- Radiation enteritis
- Crohn's disease
- Pseudo-obstruction and other Motility Disorders (gastroparesis, gastrectomy)
- Congenital bowel disease
- Ischemic bowel disease
- Intestinal tract injuries or traumas that impair the ability to eat
- AIDS
- Cerebral vascular accident (stroke)
- Chronic adhesive obstructions
- Cystic fibrosis
- Mitochondrial disease

How the Oley Foundation Can Help

Oley is a national, independent, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides information and support for consumers of homePEN, their caregivers and clinicians.

All Oley services and educational materials are FREE for consumers and their caregivers.

Oley programs:

- LifelineLetter: a bi-monthly newsletter with articles about medical advances and personal experiences, written for homePEN consumers,
- Regional Coordinator Network: a national grassroots network of 50 volunteers — all homePEN consumers or caregivers — who run support groups and provide outreach and education at the local level
- National and Regional Conferences: opportunities for homePEN consumers, clinicians, providers and industry representatives to share support and information
- Information Clearinghouse: a resource designed to answer questions about homePEN through a toll-free hotline, Web site and video tape/dvd library
- Toll-Free Consumer Network: a networking tool that provides free access to different experienced homePEN consumers around the country, each month

The Oley Foundation Privacy Policy

The Oley Foundation has a strict policy of not sharing its membership list with anyone: patients, health care professionals, Oley Regional Coordinators, research institutions, homecare companies, other nonprofit organizations, etc. We are very protective of our members' right to privacy.

Rest assured that no one has access to the names, addresses, or phone numbers of our members. This changes ONLY when a member chooses to share contacting information by responding to a mailing, advertisement, entering a contest, etc.

Oley will share a consumer's name and contacting information with another consumer for networking and outreach purposes, but only after getting permission from the consumer first.

If you have any questions, concerns or would like to discuss this policy further, please contact Joan Bishop by phone (800) 776-6539/(518) 262-5079 or e-mail bishopj@mail.amc.edu.
